GENERAL ORDER No. 1
TO THE PEOPLE OF WISCONSIN.

The best bought, best selected, best assorted and most extensive stock of
DRY GOODS
ever offered in Janesville, is now open to PUBLIC INSPECTION
at the
Great Mart of McKey & Bro.

WE have taken advantage of the recent unparalleled fall in the price of gold, E. McKey having resided almost exclusively in New York for the past three months, was on hand and
BOUGHT LARGELY
of first class importers, who, under the influence of the panic,
Sacrificed Many Desirable Goods
at 60 cents on the dollar of the prices ruling one week previous. The public is aware that the cause of the great advance in the price of Imported Goods was the the enormous premium on gold, to buy exchange and pay duties; that having declined from 74 to 38 per cent, or about 50 per cent on former rates, and we having been on the spot when it took place, went in for Piles of Goods.
the purchase of one of which would Gobble up the entire resources of many of the so-called Merchants who Blow, Hurrah and Clap their hands before the public. But we believe that sensation advertisements are played out, and that it is scarcely necessary to inform the public that those who are compelled to buy goods in small lot, and live as it were from hand to mouth cannot pretend to COMPETE WITH US!
In proof of which we offer the following:
200 ps full yd wide New York K Sheetings, 30c per yd.
200 ps Portsmouth unbleached factory,.........20c "
500 ps Spring DeLaines,.........25c "
500 ps new Spring DeLaines,.........31¼c "
300 Balmoral Skirts, 4 yds wide, 1¼ yds long, $2,50.
100 ps A T Stewart fine print'd French Jaconets, 31¼c"
200 Ps Fine French Organdies at 25c per yd.
which were bought under peculiar circumstances, the same quality having been sold at wholesale last week in New York at 44c per yard. None of the above will be sold to neighboring speculators; our legitimate trade alone supplied.
Our purchases of nearly a year ago were so enormous that we still
HAVE MANY PACKAGES
of heavy and fine bleached and unbleached Sheetings and Shirtings, Merrimac, Sprague and other Prints, Shirtings, Stripes, Tickings, Denims, Cottonades for Summer wear, &c., &c., all of which we will now open and dispose of at prices which will make the small fry stand aside, and still further add to the Brilliant and Triumphant success which has crowned our efforts for the last fourteen years.
We shall still sell our justly celebrated and superior
HOOP SKIRTS
at old prices. Our stock of Hosiery, Gloves & Embroideries
will be found the largest and most comprehensive in the state. Ladies will here find a full line of hand made Tatting, all widths, Collerette a La Eugene, Border Imperatrice, Linen Collars, plain and with ruffled, embroidered, colored and mourning trimming.
IN CLOAKINGS AND SACKINGS
We shall exhibit 100 pieces Middlesex and Washington all wool, most desirable shades, plain and mixed.
Our stock of all wool, silk warp and domett
FLANNELS
for spring and summer wear is full and well assorted.
SHAWLS! SHAWLS!
We have on the road and will shortly receive Five Hundred of the most fashionable for spring wear.
BLACK SILKS,
New Broom Black Silks, (to be had only of us,) also English Crown, Sumbline and Bischoff do do.
We close out from one of the heaviest Importers in New York, 600 pieces heavy
GERMAN REPPS,
worth 50c per yard, which to those who buy to keep over, or for immediate wear, we offer as a drive at 25c per yard.
In Our Millinery Department will be found everything desirable, choice and new, in Bonnetts and Flats of the fashionable Eugene, Alexandrina and Alboni styles; 1200 dozen best made of SHAKER HOODS,
white and colored, all sizes. Ruches, black, white and magpie; new style frames; crown lining; cape lace; fine French flowers, rose buds, &c., &c. The usual liberal inducements to the trade.
OUR CLOTHING STORE
is heavily stocked with all the new and desirable styles of GENT'S GARMENTS.
We have also a well selected line of Harris, Woodstock and other well known brands of Fancy Cassimeres,
which if desired, we shall
MAKE UP TO ORDER
in the first style of fashion.
In conclusion, we cordially invite the public, for its own satisfaction, to examine every stock in the city before looking at ours. But we would also caution every purchasor not to invest one dime in Dry Goods before calling at the
GREAT MART,
SIGN OF THE GOLDEN SHEEP,
where they can obtain

DAILY GAZETTE.

The following is from the Sierra Democrat, a paper published at Downieville, California. It has always been an uncompromising democratic paper, of the Douglas persuasion. It is sound on the War for the Union:

Simon Pure Democrats!

"The Union must and shall be preserved," is a sentiment once uttered by the immortal Jackson as a warning to treason, and found a response in every loyal heart in the nation. But now there are those in the nation who are exclaiming, "The Union must and shall be dismembered." Not to those alone who are in arms in rebellious states, are these damnable words confined, but even to those who are in our midst, who nightly gather together and utter the same treasonable sentiment—wishing harm to the national cause, and exulting at what they are pleased to call rebel victories. And these same men call themselves democrats; but look at their antecedents, and we will find they are not worthy of such a name, for they are the same who broke up the Charleston Convention, who shouted loud for John C. Breckinridge for president, and who to-day are ready to exult in his triumphs, or to weep at his misfortunes. Why only the other night at the reception of the news of the engagement of Hooker with the rebels, these same simon pure democrats were seen to shake hands with each other, to drink, to smile and exult at what they termed a rebel victory. "How the Dutch did run, ha! ha! ha!" they would exclaim, rejoicing at what they would have appear a failure of the federal arms. Oh, these same simon pure democrats little know the result of the insults they are offering—they will never know the leniency of a patriotic people until they are about to dangle at the end of a rope—suspended between heaven and earth—when most likely they will be ready to cry oh! oh! oh! God forbid that such should even come to pass; but "The Union must and shall be preserved"—a loyal people have decreed it—a loyal soldiery have sworn it—even if it should become necessary to hang every traitor in the land. And where are these traitors? those only who are in rebellious states? No. They are here, here in our midst, all through our mountains, everywhere in this state. Not traitors in arms, or those who have committed any overt act of treason; but in thought and inclination as treasonable as Yancey or Jeff. Davis, for what Yancey and Davis would do by the sword, these same simon pure democrats would do by dividing a loyal people.

Oh, it is sickening to hear these fellows charging the administration of having violated the constitution, when not a single word is heard from their lips in condemnation of the rebels; they would have us believe that the President has violated the constitution in every particular, that every act of the administration has been cruel or unjust. The President has been cruel to the nation in allowing the prison doors to be opened, to discharge men of the Vallandigham stripe into the world again, after having been once confined for their treasonable words and acts. The President has been unjust to the widows whose husbands have been slain in battle defending the nation, in not causing to be executed as traitors to their country the men who have persistently, since the war began, celebrated every defeat of the federal army. In order that the war may end by a restoration of the Union, and that speedily, and that traitors both north and south, may be brought to respect the freedom we have inherited from our fathers, we hold it to be the duty of every man who desires that consummation, to lend all his influence to support the powers striving for that end. If all unite we will soon have peace and one government; a peace which will, we trust, last forever; a government as strong and enduring as the Pyramids of Egypt. This war must end in Union. Our fathers decreed it; their sons have sworn it! We read it in the eyes of our wives and daughters; we see it in the folds of our country's flag; America would be contemptible without it; with it, she stands foremost in the ranks of the nations of the earth.

Capt. James Madison Cutts, brother to Mrs. Douglas, is on trial before a court martial. The chief charge against him, and one of which there seems to be no doubt, is peeking through the key hole of the door of a room opposite his own in the hotel, while a lady therein was unrobing, and also bringing his valise and making a foot stool of it at her door, to enable him to stand high enough to look through the blinds over the door. He was caught in the act, and the offense is said to be one prejudicial to the honor and efficiency of the service. We could suggest a shorter and better way of dealing with such offences than the cumbrous appliance of a court martial.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE.
OVER THE POST OFFICE.

THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.
One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the
FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY.
Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make
FOUR DIFFERENT STITCHES,
and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stopping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.
Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

GENERAL ORDER No. 1

TO THE PEOPLE OF WISCONSIN.

The best bought, best selected, best assorted and most extensive stock of

DRY GOODS

ever offered in Janesville, is now open to

PUBLIC INSPECTION

at the

Great Mart of McKey & Bro.

WE have taken advantage of the recent unparalleled fall in the price of gold, E. McKey having resided almost exclusively in New York for the past three months, was on hand and of first class importers, who, under the influence of the panic,

Sacrificed Many Desirable Goods

at 50 cents on the dollar of the prices ruling one week previous. The public is aware that the cause of the great advance in the price of Imported Goods was the enormous premium on gold, to buy exchange and pay duties; that having declined from 74 to 33 per cent, or about 50 per cent on former rates, and we having been on the spot when it took place, went in for the purchase of one of which would Gobble up the entire resources of many of the so-called Merchants who Blow, Hurrah and Clap their hands before the public.

Piles of Goods,

But we believe that sensation advertisements are played out, and that it is scarcely necessary to inform the public that those who are compelled to buy goods in small lot, and live as it were from hand to mouth cannot pretend to

COMPETE WITH US!

In proof of which we offer the following:

200 ps full yd wide New York E Sheetings, 30c per yd.
200 ps Portsmouth unbleached factory, 20c "
500 ps Spring DeLaines, 25c "
500 ps new Spring DeLaines, 31¼c "
500 Balmoral Skirts, 4 yds wide, 1½ yds long, $2,50.
100 ps A T Stewart fine print'd French Jaconets, 31¼c"

300 Ps Fine French Organdies at 25c per yd.

which were bought under peculiar circumstances, the same quality having been sold at wholesale last week in New York at 44c per yard. None of the above will be sold to neighboring speculators; our legitimate trade alone supplied.

Our purchases of nearly a year ago were so enormous that we still

of heavy and fine bleached and unbleached Sheetings and Shirtings, Merrimac, Sprague and other Prints, Shirtings, Stripes, Tickings, Denims, Cottonades for Summer wear, &c., &c., all of which we will now open and dispose of at prices which will make the small fry stand aside, and still further add to the Brilliant and Triumphant success which has crowned our efforts for the last fourteen years.

We shall still sell our justly celebrated and superior

HOOP SKIRTS

at old prices. Our stock of

will be found the largest and most comprehensive in the state. Ladies will here find a full line of hand made Tatting, all widths, Collerette a La Eugene, Bordure Imperatrice, Linen Collars, plain and with ruffled, embroidered, colored and mourning trimming.

IN CLOAKINGS AND SACKINGS

We shall exhibit 100 pieces Middlesex and Washington all wool, most desirable shades, plain and mixed.

Our stock of all wool, silk warp and domett

FLANNELS

for spring and summer wear is full and well assorted.

SHAWLS! SHAWLS!

We have on the road and will shortly receive Five Hundred of the most fashionable for spring wear.

BLACK SILKS,

New Broom Black Silks, (to be had only of us,) also English Crown, Sumbline and Bischoff do do.

We close out from one of the heaviest importers in New York, 600 pieces heavy

GERMAN REPPS,

worth 50c per yard, which to those who buy to keep over, or for immediate wear, we offer as a drive at 25c per yard.

In Our Millinery Department

will be found everything desirable, choice and new, in Bonnetts and Flats of the fashionable Eugene, Alexandrina and Alboni styles; 1200 dozen best made of white and colored, all sizes. Ruches, black, white and magpie; new style frames; crown lining; cape lace; fine French flowers, rose buds, &c., &c. The usual liberal inducements to the trade.

SHAKER HOODS,

OUR CLOTHING STORE

is heavily stocked with all the new and desirable styles of

GENT'S GARMENTS.

We have also a well selected line of Harris, Woodstock and other well known brands of

Fancy Cassimeres,

which if desired, we shall

MAKE UP TO ORDER

in the first style of fashion.

In conclusion, we cordially invite the public, for its own satisfaction, to examine every stock in the city before looking at ours. But we would also caution every purchaser not to invest one dime in Dry Goods before calling at the

GREAT MART,

SIGN OF THE GOLDEN SHEEP,

where they can obtain

Twenty-Five per Cent More for their money than at any other store.

DAILY GAZETTE.

☞ The following is from the Sierra Democrat, a paper published at Downieville, California. It has always been an uncompromising democratic paper, of the Douglas persuasion. It is sound on the War for the Union:

Simon Pure Democrats?

"The Union must and shall be preserved," is a sentiment once uttered by the immortal Jackson as a warning to treason, and found a response in every loyal heart in the nation. But now there are those in the nation who are exclaiming, "The Union must and shall be dismembered." Not to those alone who are in arms in rebellious states, are these damnable words confined, but even to those who are in our midst, who nightly gather together and utter the same treasonable sentiment—wishing harm to the national cause, and exulting at what they are pleased to call rebel victories. And these same men call themselves democrats; but look at their antecedents, and we will find they are not worthy of such a name, for they are the same who broke up the Charleston Convention, who shouted loud for John C. Breckinridge for president, and who to-day are ready to exult in his triumphs, or to weep at his misfortunes. Why only the other night at the reception of the news of the engagement of Hooker with the rebels, these same simon pure democrats were seen to shake hands with each other, to drink, to smile and exult at what they termed a rebel victory. "How the Dutch did run, ha! ha! ha!" they would exclaim, rejoicing at what they would have appear a failure of the federal arms. Oh, these same simon pure democrats little know the result of the insults they are offering—they will never know the leniency of a patriotic people until they are about to dangle at the end of a rope—suspended between heaven and earth—when most likely they will be ready to cry oh! oh! oh! God forbid that such should even come to pass; but "The Union must and shall be preserved"—a loyal people have decreed it—a loyal soldiery have sworn it—even if it should become necessary to hang every traitor in the land. And where are these traitors? those only who are in rebellious states? No. They are here, here in our midst, all through our mountains, everywhere in this state. Not traitors in arms, or those who have committed any overt act of treason; but in thought and inclination as treasonable as Yancey or Jeff. Davis, for what Yancey and Davis would do by the sword, these same simon pure democrats would do by dividing a loyal people.

Oh, it is sickening to hear these fellows charging the administration of having violated the constitution, when not a single word is heard from their lips in condemnation of the rebels; they would have us believe that the President has violated the constitution in every particular, that every act of the administration has been cruel or unjust. The President has been cruel to the nation in allowing the prison doors to be opened, to discharge men of the Vallandigham stripe into the world again, after having been once confined for their treasonable words and acts. The President has been unjust to the widows whose husbands have been slain in battle defending the nation, in not causing to be executed as traitors to their country the men who have persistently, since the war began, celebrated every defeat of the federal army. In order that the war may end by a restoration of the Union, and that speedily, and that traitors both north and south, may be brought to respect the freedom we have inherited from our fathers, we hold it to be the duty of every man who desires that consummation, to lend all his influence to support the powers striving for that end. If all unite we will soon have peace and one government; a peace which will, we trust, last forever; a government as strong and enduring as the Pyramids of Egypt. This war must end in Union. Our fathers decreed it; their sons have sworn it! We read it in the eyes of our wives and daughters; we see it in the folds of our country's flag; America would be contemptible without it; with it, she stands foremost in the ranks of the nations of the earth.

Capt. James Madison Cutts, brother to Mrs. Douglas, is on trial before a court martial. The chief charge against him, and one of which there seems to be no doubt, is peeking through the key hole of the door of a room opposite his own in the hotel, while a lady therein was unrobing, and also bringing his valise and making a foot stool of it at her door, to enable him to stand high enough to look through the blinds over the door. He was caught in the act, and the offense is said to be one prejudicial to the honor and efficiency of the service. We could suggest a shorter and better way of dealing with such offences than the cumbrous appliance of a court martial.

FLORENCE

SEWING MACHINE.

OVER THE POST OFFICE.

THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is

Simple, Strong & Reliable,

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric, such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY,

Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufactures to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make

and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stepping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail. Address, F. L. Raynor,

The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Thursday Evening, July 9, 1863.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet—
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

A Battle Expected.

Lee is reported to be fortifying on or near the old Antietam battle ground. His wagon train is between Williamsburg and Sharpsburg, endeavoring to cross the Potomac. Every available force is being forwarded to Gen. Meade. Another battle is expected to take place, to-morrow, which will probably be decisive of the fate of Lee. Our army will this time be the attacking force. We have great confidence that the result will be a glorious victory to our arms.

The Fall of Mexico.

There is no doubt that the French have occupied the city of Mexico, and that the government of that country is practically overthrown. The French army took possession of the capital on the 3d inst. The The army of Juarez has dwindled down to six thousand men, almost destitute of artillery, and cannot be expected to make any effective resistance.

The conservative or church party are rallying to the support of the French, as there is now no danger of their punishment for treason, since the French are sufficiently powerful to protect them. The Pope is already aiding the French emperor by the appointment of new Bishops, and every kind of influence which the church party can use will be brought to bear upon the people for promoting the designs of the French.

When the conquest of the country is completed, as it will be very soon, the Emperor will carry out his designs of permanent occupation by fortifying the important positions necessary for defending the golden prize he has won by robbery and treachery. France will then become a neighbor of the United States, and as Napoleon has been among the foremost in giving countenance to the rebellion, it cannot be expected that he will be a very peaceable or safe one. He will, of course, respect us as long as we have no trouble among ourselves, but once let us fall into the condition of Mexico, and he will be ready to seize whatever portion of our country he thinks himself able to hold.

The fall of Mexico is, therefore, an event of vast importance to us, as it may lead to hostilities with France.

Mr. Lincoln and the Vallandigham Committee.

The President's reply to the application of the Ohio committee for the release of Vallandigham has been published. After arguing the matter at some length, he proposed that a majority of the committee should commit themselves to the following propositions, by affixing their names to them, upon which Vallandigham should be released, to remain so as long as he conformed to the same stipulations:

1. That there is now a rebellion in the United States, the object and tendency of which is to destroy the national Union; and that in your opinion an army and navy are constitutional means for suppressing the rebellion.

2. That no one of you will do anything which, in his own judgment, will tend to hinder the increase or favor the decrease, or lessen the efficiency of the army or navy while engaged in the effort to suppress that rebellion; and

3. That each of you will, in his sphere, do all he can to have the officers, soldiers and seamen of the army and navy, while engaged in the effort to suppress the rebellion, paid, fed, clad, and otherwise well provided and supported.

And with the further understanding that upon receiving the letter and names thus endorsed, I will cause them to be published, which publication shall be, within itself, a revocation of the order in relation to Mr. Vallandigham.

THE MISSOURI EMANCIPATION SCHEME.—A call for a mass convention of all citizens of St. Louis who are opposed to the action of the late state convention, in adopting a scheme for the maintenance of the institution of slavery in Missouri, under the guise of a plan of emancipation, in declaring the exemption of slave property from taxation; in denying to the people the right to elect their own rulers, and in refusing to the people the privilege of voting upon the pretended ordinance of emancipation passed by that body, appears in the Missouri Democrat. The convention will be held on the 9th inst.

The invasion of Pennsylvania has given the coal dealers a pretense for raising the price of coal several dollars on a ton. The fact that the rebels have not been near the coal region of Pennsylvania, and that the supply will be one-half larger this year than any preceding season, make this sudden inflation of prices seem like an obnoxious speculation.—Chicago Journal.

Some men, if there were two railroad tracks to Heaven, and one should become out of repair, would double the passage price on the uninjured one, and perhaps tear up the rails on the competing road to enable them to make their advanced charges.

THIRD CAVALRY.—1st Lieut. Thompson appointed captain Co.M, vice Rouse, resigned; 2d Lieut. John E. Bernard as 1st lieutenant Co. M, vice Thompson, promoted: Henry M. Taylor, as 2d lieutenant Co. M, vice Bernard, promoted.

Col. Hatch's Raid in Mississippi.

LA GRANGE, June 26, 1863.

My Dear Alice:—In accordance with my promise in yesterday's letter, I will give you a detailed account of the cavalry raid we have just returned from. We left camp at daylight the 15th of the present month, with three brigades of cavalry, our fighting Colonel Hatch commanding the 1st, Col. Meeks, of the 11th Illinois, the 2d, and Col. McCrillis, of the 9th Illinois, the 3d; also four mountain howitzers, 12 pounders. The first day we made 40 miles, and camped within ten miles of the Tallahatchie river. As soon as we went into camp for the night, one company (as is customary for us in the enemy's country,) was ordered to patrol the road in the rear to ascertain, if possible, whether anything was following us. They proceeded about a quarter of a mile, when they were commanded to halt, and were challenged, "Who goes there?" (It was very dark and they could see nothing.) The officer answered, "A detachment of the 2d Iowa. They words had hardly passed his lips when they poured a volley from some 40 shot guns into his company, wounding two men, one mortally, and killing two horses. We heard the report of the volley, and "I bet you" we got into position in a hurry; but that was the end of it. It was only a company of guerrillas, who followed our trail to find out where we camped.

The next morning we started early, and reached the old Sherman Ford of the Tallahatchie by 9 a. m. Found the boat destroyed, and a company of rebel cavalry guarding the ford from the opposite bank. Skirmished with them awhile, when they fell back. Col. Hatch here called for a company to volunteer to cross. Co. C, of our regiment, promptly responded, and dashed in, swam the river, and in a few moments were peppering away. I regretted very much that I was not in hearing when they called for a volunteer company, as I am considered some on a charge ever since I charged and captured Hudsonville with 40 men, that was defended by 250 rebels. I was the third company across, not much behind. The boys enjoyed the sport of swimming their horses across. Some were mounted on small mules, and it was perfectly side-splitting to see them perform in the water. Some, when reaching deep water, would go down head first, throwing the riders over their heads. When they reached the opposite bank, the rider generally had Mr. Mule by the narrative.

I was sent forward with my company to find a plantation to camp at, as it would take until the following morning to cross the whole command.

I moved three miles to the front where I found a beautiful plantation, the residence of a Mr. James Bowler, a Mississippi state senator, where I found plenty of corn for the animals, and hams and chickens for the men; concluded it would pay to accept the hospitalities of Mr. "Senator." I say accept, as the gentleman dug out just before we got there. Budd invited himself, and of course accepted. I assure you we were no welcome guests to the ladies and they let no opportunity pass to convince us of that fact. Next day we marched without interruption to the plantation of Dr. Lard which we reached an hour before dark. Here we met a force of the enemy who had come from Panola, eight miles distant, to make us countermarch; but it was no go. The boys pitched into them, and in less than an hour they were gone. We camped here for the night, fed what corn we could, and in the morning when leaving we burned the rest.

Approaching Panola we had everything arranged for a fight, as we expected old Chalmers would surely fight here, this being his headquarters; but nary a fight. We marched quietly in and took possession of the town, his troops evacuated some five hours before. It seems that Chalmers with some 2,000 of his men had gone north, while we were coming south. He went to the Mississippi river and attempted the capture of some of our transports, while we marched to his headquarters and destroyed them. From here four companies were sent in pursuit of the retreating foe. They chased them across the Yocna river, burned the railroad bridge and returned to Panola, burning all the government property and stores. We all recrossed the Tallahatchie in hopes to get in ahead of Chalmers on his return. Leaving the river by the Senatobid road we received orders to burn the country as we passed, and very soon could be seen fences, corn cribs, cotton gins, vacant houses, wagons, buggies, plows, fields of grain just cut, and all other combustible matter, with exception of occupied houses all on fire. It was truly a fearful scene, and brilliant withal. The scene of desolation, misery and destruction combined, was such as I never wish to see again. From several houses I saw a woman snatch her babe from the cradle and, followed by two and sometimes four little ones, start for the woods with no bonnet on, her hair streaming in the wind, screaming at the top of her voice for us to spare her and the children. We told her to go back to the house and she should not be harmed. In some cases it was almost impossible to convince them that we would not kill them. Thus we marched to Senalobia, leaving everything in ruins behind us.

Here one brigade took charge of the captured property, which consisted of horses, mules, niggers by the hundreds, a large drove of cattle, two artillery cassons and about 60 prisoners, and started for home, 70 miles distant, while we struck south after Gen. Chalmers. As soon as we left town the burning commenced again. In our front, rear and on both flanks for miles could be seen the fires. Moving about eight miles we were suddenly brought to a halt by the advance guard being an ambushed, in which two men were badly wounded. From an intelligent contraband at a house near by we learned that Chalmers was on this road two hours before, coming towards us, but learning that the Yanks were in the country about faced his command and skedaddled for the Coldwater, which he was then probably crossing. We pushed on as fast as possible till we reached a cane thicket, four miles from the ferry, when we encountered them. Skirmishing commenced and for two hours we had it quite lively with them, but all the time driving them. Their only object in fighting us was to gain time for their command to cross.

Night coming on they crossed under cover of it. Our skirmish line was pushed forward to the river bank, when the rebs opened a terrific fire from the opposite bank, killing one and wounding one of our men. The men took shelter behind trees, the rebs were in the cane thicket, only a narrow river between them. When one from either side showed himself bang went a gun after him. They were so close that they finally got to blackgarding each other. During the conversation one of our boys showed himself—snap, snap, went two shotguns, but the caps being wet they did not explode. One of our boys called out to him, "Your caps are wet, Bub, dont you want some dry ones." "Yes, send us over some, please." They got two volleys from fifty rifles just then. "How do you like those caps?" said one of them. "Not at all, for God's sake send them the other end foremost, if you please."

It being dark it would have been folly to have attempted to cross until morning. We politely requested them to wait until daylight and we would give them all the fight they wanted. "All right," said they, but when day appeared they were gone. We crossed rapidly and pushed on after them, but they having several hours the start got away from us. We followed their trail until we found they had scattered in squads, then left them. Marched that night until near midnight. By looking over one's shoulder you could track us for miles by the blazing corn cribs and cotton gins.

At the plantation where we camped we found three very interesting ladies. They heard of our coming an hour before we arrived, and seeing the firey trail we left supposed, as they said, that we would burn their house and contents, consequently they hid their valuables in boxes, sacks and baskets, and secreted them in the orchard. Thinking we would pass on after burning them out. It happened that my company camped in the orchard where the articles were hid; also, several other companies. In the morning the boys were somewhat surprised to find a jar of honey, in one place, a jar of preserves in another, a barrel of whisky in another which they made fly in a hurry; all kinds of ladies wearing apparrel, dishes, glass ware, and bed-clothes were also found; some of the things they got again and some things they did not. One of my boys brought me two pair of kid gloves, some ladies hose, collars, and pocket handkerchiefs. I took them to the ladies, who thanked me with tears in their eyes, said they had lost most everything they had and now says one their goes my pet riding poney. Some of our soldiers, I am ashamed to say, conducted themselves most shamefully on this raid, robbing and plundering houses and insulting ladies in the most shameful manner. But such things are not tolerated and are only practiced by those who were thieves at home, and will be thieves any where. One rascal robbed an orphan girl of a fine gold watch the gift of her father. Fortunately he was detected. I was talking to the lady when the thief was marched back and made to deliver it to her. If he possessed any fine or sensitive feeling it must have been very humiliating; he certainly looked sheepish enough. I would sooner die a thousand deaths than have been in his situation.

Leaving this plantation we reached home three days after, tired, dirty and hungry, fully satisfied that Gen. Chalmers is a coward, and the troops that he commands, for we were seven or eight days in his country, giving him every opportunity, and nearly begging a fight from him, but fight he wont unless he can catch a small squad by themselves. Our regiment and the 2d Michigan whipped him a year ago the first day of July, at Boonville, where he had 7,000 men, and he has had no use for us since. So this cruel war goes on. How many innocent people must and do suffer. Chalmers has been so recreant to the trust reposed in him of guarding this state that it is said Gen. Forrest, from Bragg's army, with his cavalry, is coming here to take care of us. I know him of old, and the old rat fights wicked.

It will be a relief and a satisfaction to the men to have some one here that will fight us, for we have ridden day and night for the past two months and havn't had a good tough fight yet. Tell cousin Billy and Whig that when their commands are surrounded that that is the time to fight. Our command was completely surrounded a short time since. We made a feint at one point, and went through at another like a kite, rallied the men and attacked and routed them completely, losing only three or four men. Our being mounted makes a great difference. Nothing like being astride of a good horse. Especially when the fight gets too hot its a good thing to get out of the way with.

We have no late or interesting news from Vicksburg. The people, that is the citizens, are confident that we will never take it. I think I never saw people so sanguine as they are. If they get an idea in their heads nothing can convince them to the contrary.

I have given you a pretty lengthy account of this trip, but the half is not told. I will leave the balance until I come home.

Ever Yours, GEORGE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot

Last Night's Report.

LOUISVILLE, July 8.

The steamers Alice Dean and J. T. McCombs were captured by about 200 rebels at Brandenburg, Kentucky, yesterday afternoon. Gunboats are in pursuit.

NEW YORK, July 8.

A Washington letter in the Commercial says Admiral Wilkes had arrived there, having been relieved from duty with the West India squadron.

The same letter says a distinguished member of the administration remarked, Tuesday, that the services of every major general would soon be called to active duty and that General McClellan would be the first one, it having been determined to give him a place where his engineering abilities could be displayed.

The rebel pickets have fallen back beyond Fairfax.

BALTIMORE, July 8.

Nearly 1,000 rebels captured by General Kilpatrick arrived this morning, including Gen. Jones, a cavalry officer, and 51 other commissioned officers.

Archbishop Renrick died suddenly this morning, aged 66 years.

NEW YORK, July 8.

The Post has the following: Capt. Reyerson, of the 13th New Jersey regiment, who reached home at Newark, this morning, says, before he left this regiment Gen. Meade made an address to his army in which he stated that the rebel loss was 35,000. Gen. Meade has captured in all sixty pieces of artillery. The Post says Captain Reyerson is a man of character and reliability.

CAIRO, July 8.

Special to Evening Journal.—A bearer of dispatches from Gen. Grant arrived this morning. One division of the army had marched in and taken possession of Vicksburg before he left. Grant will not rest on his laurels. Look out for more interesting news from that quarter soon.

There were four divisions of rebel troops in Vicksburg, commanded by the following named officers: Maj. Gen. C. L. Stevens, of Virginia; Maj. Gen. Forney, of Ala.; Maj. Gen. M. L. Smith, formerly of New York, but late of Florida, and Brig Gen. Bowen, of Missouri. The number of prisoners taken is between 23,000 and 25,000. They were all paroled. The reasons for this course are many and satisfactory, though it does not give a favorable impression at first.

I have seen a number of a Vicksburg paper, printed on wall paper, dated the 2d. The garrison was reduced to mule meat before surrendering. A paragraph speaks of this meat being "savory," and in a variety of ways it tries to keep its courage up.

We have possession of every man and gun in the city. It is said that nearly one-third of the rebels are sick.

As the steamer Dickey came up she was fired upon by guerrillas at the foot of Island 82, with six pound cannon. The boat was struck 13 times. Nobody was hurt. The guerrillas have instructions to fire on all hospital steamers, as they say we have been carrying troops and ammunition under the hospital flag.

The victory at Helena is larger than reported yesterday. We have 1200 prisoners, I have not been able to get the exact losses yet. They do not vary much from the estimate of yesterday.

HEADQUARTERS DEP'T OF THE CUMBERLAND, TULLAHOMA, July 8, 1863—P. M.

We have driven the rebels out of Middle Tennessee.

Their retreat has been disastrous and demoralizing to them. It is generally believed they had lost not less than five thousand prisoners in the mountains.

Nothing but excessive rains and the impassable condition of the roads prevented us from overthrowing and destroying their entire army.

It has now rained for fifteen consecutive days. You may judge of the roads, when I tell you that it took two divisions of Crittenden's corps four days to make twenty miles.

The north end of a bridge across the Tennessee at Bridgeport was burned by Bragg, who crossed at that point.

STEAMER JOHN H. DICKEY, Vicinity of Vicksburg, July 4.

Special to Chicago Times.—Vicksburg has surrendered.

The name of Gen. Grant is now inseparably connected with our national birthday. We entered the city at 10 a. m. of that day, at high noon the flag gracefully waved forgiveness for the past.

Over 20,000 prisoners were taken, with small arms innumerable, and the finest rifled batteries in the confederate service.

At about 7 a. m. of July 3d, a flag of truce was seen upon the rebel breastworks. An officer was sent to receive it. All firing ceased, and thousands of men thronged the parapets to see the foe with whom they had contended for 42 days, each concealed from the other. The men on both sides gazed in wonderment. No arms were visible, only men, and the earthworks were alive. In some salients where we thought there might be 20, there seemed 100. All looked like men who labored in mills or lime quarries. Slouched hats, shirts and pants were the uniform. But little was said, though in some places the men were not more than 16 or 15 feet apart.

The bearers of dispatches to our generals were fine looking men, of martial bearing and brave men, clad in grey, close fitting uniform and French caps, mounted on fine but thin horses. They were conducted blindfolded to the tent of Gen. A. Smith, whose front they had entered. He escorted them to the tent of Gen. Stephen Burbridge, to remain until his return from the quarters of Gen. Grant, five miles away. They conversed of old times more than the present. Their names were Gen. Bowen, of Port Gibson memory, and Col. Montgomery, of Virginia.

After taking a glass of wine, Gen. Bowen remarked that his bandage was uncomfortable, as it was very warm. Gen. Burbridge had it unloosed.

After more than an hour's conversation their answer came, and they were again blindfolded and returned to their own works.

Still the men sat in silence. Not a gun was fired in that part of the works. All wondered what it meant.

The purport of the rebel message was this:

"GEN. GRANT—To prevent the further effusion of blood and loss of life, I propose that hostilities cease for — hours, and that you appoint three commissioners and I three, to confer upon conditions of surrender, though I can hold out indefinitely."

To which Gen. Grant replied:

"As to the first proposition, it is for you to avoid at any time. As to the second, I see no necessity for that, as there can be no conditions of surrender. We can all bear testimony to your endurance and bravery, and will treat you with all the respect due prisoners of war."

Gen. Pemberton then solicited a personal interview, which was granted by Gen. Grant.

At 3 p. m. the latter, with his staff, appeared on the hills where our advance works were. Here the party halted until Gen. Pemberton appeared, accompanied by Gen. Bowen and Col. Montgomery. On the crest of the opposite hills were rifle-pits and forts crowded with men. In the space between, in a grove of fruit trees, figs and peaches, met the contending heroes.—Thousands of soldiers looked upon the strange scene.

Two men who had been lieutenants in the same regiment in Mexico now met as foes, with all the world looking upon them, the one his country's glory, and the other his country's shame.

When they had approached within a few feet, there was a halt and a silence. Col. Montgomery spoke: "Gen. Grant, Gen. Pemberton." They shook hands politely.

It was evident that Pemberton was mortified. He said: "I was at Monterey and Buena Vista. We had terms and conditions there." Gen. Grant here took him aside, and they sat down on the grass, and talked more than an hour. Grant smoked all the time. Pemberton played with the grass and pulled leaves.

It was finally agreed to parole them there, allowing the officers each his horse. It was a polite thing. The dread of going north and the fear of harsh treatment had deterred them from capitulating sooner.—Grant proved his magnaninity and saved thousands upon thousands of dollars in the way of transportation and rations.

They feared the 4th of July. Our men would call out at night that the 4th would finish them. It was so arranged. By this we have saved thousands of lives.

Both armies are gratified with the result. Our men treat the rebels with kindness, giving them coffee, which some have not tasted for a year.

The city is much dilipidated. Many houses are injured.

The Vicksburg paper of July 2d, of which I send you extracts by mail, admits the eating of mule meat and the pilfering of soldiers in private houses.

Mrs. Cisco, wife of an officer in the artillery service, was killed last Monday in the city.

Gen. Green, formerly of Missouri, was killed last week. Cols. Griffin and Askew, of the 31st Louisiana regiment were also killed.

There seems to be much suffering there from sickness and our missiles.

Johnston is still in our rear.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 8.

Special to the Tribune.—Governor Morton has just received information that John Morgan with his entire force is at Brandensburg, on the Ohio river, and that he has seized two boats and crossed about 400 of his men into Indiana, who are said to be marching on Coryden, Harrison county.

A skirmish had taken place between them and a small force of home guards, in which the latter were defeated with a loss of several killed. The militia has been called out and preparations made to "welcome them with bloody hands to hospitable graves." The citizens of this city are meeting in the various wards organizing companies of home guards.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

FREDERICK, Md., July 8—9 p. m.

Gen. French has been placed in command of the 3d army corps, which has been largely reinforced and placed in motion. It is stated on reliable authority that Lee has no alternative but to deliver battle or surrender. About 600 prisoners arrived to-day. This arrival, according to the statements of high officers, swells the number already reported to 11,800. These latter were captured and forwarded by Gen. Kilpatrick. Considerable cannonading has been heard to day in the direction of Hagerstown, but no reports have yet come in. It is believed to have been caused by our cavalry attack on the enemy's outpost.

BALTIMORE, July 8.

The American's special, dated Wednesday noon, 8th, says: The position of the rebels and their condition is definitely ascertained. Their infantry line was drawn across from Funksburg, Maryland, to Falling Waters, and behind this line they are making almost superhuman exertions to get their trains of artillery and ammunition across the river. The best military authority doubts it, and are almost confident they have no pontoon bridges at Falling Waters. They are now crossing their horses on boats and leaving their wagons on this side, probably intending to take them to pieces and carry them across on canal boats. I have heard the opinion expressed by high military authority, that the enemy would probably secure the most defensible line in front of Williamsport, entrench themselves, and endeavor to hold our army at bay while they secured means of crossing.

Lee's headquarters are definitely ascertained to be at Hagerstown to-day, and his troops are mainly on the road between there and Williamport which is only seven miles distant. Gen. Earley's rebel command is to day reported to be cut off in the mountains near Greencastle by our cavalry. This is only a rumor, but it is credited to some extent. The cavalry of Gen. Pleasanton has been operating with magnificent success during the last three days. While the rebels were retreating we had cavalry in their front and rear and on both flanks. Its presence and bold dashes aided in increasing the demoralization of the rebels and their discipline has been greatly relaxed. Among captures are Brig. Gens. Robinson and Trimble.

The damage done the rebel trains by the dashes of our cavalry is almost incredible. Everywhere they were captured, cut off and burned. Gen. Kilpatrick dashed into the middle of Gen. Ewell's train and burned between 200 and 300 wagons and run off horses. To-day he captured 63 more wagons and 300 horses and mules. Our cavalry think Kilpatrick's division had a fight yesterday at Hagerstown with a rebel division. Their positions at one time was dangerous, but they got out finally without severe loss.

Our army is moving steadily. If Lee remains this side of the river there is a probability of another battle within the next 48 hours.

FT. MONROE, July 7.

Further lists of prisoners who have died in rebel prisons are received and forwarded to Washington for publication. The steamer City o. Albany from White House arrived on the morning of the first. General Getty with 10,000 men proceeded from White House to destroy the remaining bridges over the South Anna river. He returned this morning to White House, having accomplished most of his mission satisfactorily.

HARRISBURG, July 8—10 p. m.

Special to World.—Reports are rife here to-night, of an advance of a part of the rebel forces again down the Cumberland valley to strike Gen. Couch's army.

FREDERICK, Md., July 8.

Times' special.—The total number of prisoners captured reported at the provost marshal general's office, to last night, including wounded, is in the vicinity of 11,000. There is no truth in the stories of great amounts of artillery captured by us. About two-thirds of the burial parties sent out to bury rebel dead have made returns. The number reported by them thus far is 2,680. The total cannot fall under 3,500, not including those of Wednesday, which the enemy himself buried. Our losses, as to-day reported semi-officially, foot up 17,000 killed, wounded and missing. The 3d corps' loses 4,400; 5th, 2,349; 12th, 750; 2d, 4,800. The balance I have not yet obtained.

LEAVENWORTH, July 8.

Special to Herald, Sunday, 5th.—Gen. Blunt, with all the cavalry he could raise, has started from Fort Scott to Fort Gibson, in the Indian Territory. Information received at the headquarters of the district of the frontier shows that Col. Phillips, of the Indian brigade, is hard pressed by the enemy, who is reported 7,000 strong. Three infantry regiments are marching to reinforce Col. Phillips. Gen. Blunt took no train, and will cross the Arkansas and offer battle.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, July 8, 1863.

Herald's special.—Lee is still on this side of the Potomac, unable to cross with his army. It is anticipated that a battle will probably occur near the old Antietam field. Our forces are rapidly concentrating and a desperate battle is impending. The river is swollen to a great height and is still rising. South Mountain has been occupied, and Harper's Ferry is in our possession.

CINCINNATI, July 9.

Special to Commercial, Tullahoma, 8th.—Bragg yesterday retreated across the Tennessee and destroyed the splendid bridge at Bridgeport. Stragglers captured say the army is demoralized and crumbling as it recedes.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.

Legal tenders sell to day at 75.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

PHILADELPHIA, July 9.

The Enquirer has a special from Fredericks, 8th, reporting a sharp action nearly all day between Meade's advances and the rebels beyond Boonsboro. Every available man is being pushed forward. The rebels attacked our cavalry this morning west of Boonsboro. We fell back towards Crampton's Gap. This indicates that the river being unfordable Lee intends trying Antietam again.

HARRISBURG, July 9.

There is no information here of the rebel advance down the Cumberland Valley against Couch.

NEW YORK, July 9.

Flour dull and a shade lower, 5,05a5,60 extra state. Wheat unsettled and more doing, 1,12a1,25 spring, 1,18a1,31 Milwaukee club, 1,36a1,40 winter red. Corn steadier, 66½c. Whisky quiet 45½a46.

FREDERICK, Md., July 8.

Herald's special.—It is reliably reported that our troops occupied Hagerstown today, after a fight. No particulars. The enemy were transporting men across the river on two flat boats. Our artillery had commenced shelling them. The rebel army is supposed to be moving between Williamsport and Sharpsburg. It is generally thought there will be a decisive battle tomorrow or next day.

WASHINGTON, July 8.

Information received, to-night, indicates another battle imminent at Hagerstown. All precautions have been taken to secure the capture of Lee's army, which is thought only a question of time. The rumor that Beauregard was at Culpepper with 40,000 men is believed to be a canard.

WASHINGTON, July 8.

Times' special.—Generals Grant and Meade are promoted. The former to be major general and the latter brigadier general in the regular army.

WASHINGTON, July 8.

Special to the Tribune.—Heavy skirmishing, to-day, from daylight till 3 p. m., near Boonsboro, between Buford's and Kilpatrick's cavalry and the enemy's cavalry and infantry. The locality of Lee is unknown, but his wagon trains are at Williamsport. It is believed Lee is fortifying on or near the Antietam.

It is now stated that the first draft will be for 300,000. It will be made as soon as the enrollment can be completed. The quotas of the several districts are already assigned.

NEW YORK, July 9.

The Times correspondent, with Kilpatrick's cavalry, writing from South Mountain, reports the capture, on the 4th, of all of Ewell's wagon train four miles long, strongly guarded by infantry and cavalry, with 1,500 prisoners, and 3000 horses and mules.

Citv of Janesville.

Thursday Evening, July 9, 1863.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet—
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

A Battle Expected.

Lee is reported to be fortifying on or near the old Antietam battle ground. His wagon train is between Williamsburg and Sharpsburg, endeavoring to cross the Potomac. Every available force is being forwarded to Gen. Meade. Another battle is expected to take place, to-morrow, which will probably be decisive of the fate of Lee. Our army will this time be the attacking force. We have great confidence that the result will be a glorious victory to our arms.

The Fall of Mexico.

There is no doubt that the French have occupied the city of Mexico, and that the government of that country is practically overthrown. The French army took possession of the capital on the 3d inst. The The army of Juarez has dwindled down to six thousand men, almost destitute of artillery, and cannot be expected to make any effective resistance.

The conservative or church party are rallying to the support of the French, as there is now no danger of their punishment for treason, since the French are sufficiently powerful to protect them. The Pope is already aiding the French emperor by the appointment of new Bishops, and every kind of influence which the church party can use will be brought to bear upon the people for promoting the designs of the French.

When the conquest of the country is completed, as it will be very soon, the Emperor will carry out his designs of permanent occupation by fortifying the important positions necessary for defending the golden prize he has won by robbery and treachery. France will then become a neighbor of the United States, and as Napoleon has been among the foremost in giving countenance to the rebellion, it cannot be expected that he will be a very peaceable or safe one. He will, of course, respect us as long as we have no trouble among ourselves, but once let us fall into the condition of Mexico, and he will be ready to seize whatever portion of our country he thinks himself able to hold.

The fall of Mexico is, therefore, an event of vast importance to us, as it may lead to hostilities with France.

Mr. Lincoln and the Vallandigham Committee.

The President's reply to the application of the Ohio committee for the release of Vallandigham has been published. After arguing the matter at some length, he proposed that a majority of the committee should commit themselves to the following propositions, by affixing their names to them, upon which Vallandigham should be released, to remain so as long as he conformed to the same stipulations:

1. That there is now a rebellion in the United States, the object and tendency of which is to destroy the national Union; and that in your opinion an army and navy are constitutional means for suppressing the rebellion.

2. That no one of you will do anything which, in his own judgment, will tend to hinder the increase or favor the decrease, or lessen the efficiency of the army or navy while engaged in the effort to suppress that rebellion; and

3. That each of you will, in his sphere, do all he can to have the officers, soldiers and seamen of the army and navy, while engaged in the effort to suppress the rebellion, paid, fed, clad, and otherwise well provided and supported.

And with the further understanding that upon receiving the letter and names thus endorsed, I will cause them to be published, which publication shall be, within itself, a revocation of the order in relation to Mr. Vallandigham.

The Missouri Emancipation Scheme.—A call for a mass convention of all citizens of St. Louis who are opposed to the action of the late state convention, in adopting a scheme for the maintenance of the institution of slavery in Missouri, under the guise of a plan of emancipation, in declaring the exemption of slave property from taxation; in denying to the people the right to elect their own rulers, and in refusing to the people the privilege of voting upon the pretended ordinance of emancipation passed by that body, appears in the Missouri Democrat. The convention will be held on the 9th inst.

The invasion of Pennsylvania has given the coal dealers a pretense for raising the price of coal several dollars on a ton. The fact that the rebels have not been near the coal region of Pennsylvania, and that the supply will be one-half larger this year than any preceding season, make this sudden inflation of prices seem like an obnoxious speculation.—Chicago Journal.

Some men, if there were two railroad tracks to Heaven, and one should become out of repair, would double the passage price on the uninjured one, and perhaps tear up the rails on the competing road to enable them to make their advanced charges.

Third Cavalry.—1st Lieut. Thompson appointed captain Co. M, vice Rouse, resigned; 2d Lieut. John E. Bernard as 1st lieutenant Co. M, vice Thompson, promoted: Henry M. Taylor, as 2d lieutenant Co. M, vice Bernard, promoted.

Col. Hatch's Raid in Mississippi.

La Grange, June 26, 1863.

My Dear Alice:—In accordance with my promise in yesterday's letter, I will give you a detailed account of the cavalry raid we have just returned from. We left camp at daylight the 15th of the present month, with three brigades of cavalry, our fighting Colonel Hatch commanding the 1st, Col. Meeks, of the 11th Illinois, the 2d, and Col. McCrillis, of the 9th Illinois, the 3d; also four mountain howitzers, 12 pounders. The first day we made 40 miles, and camped within ten miles of the Tallahatchie river. As soon as we went into camp for the night, one company (as is customary for us in the enemy's country,) was ordered to patrol the road in the rear to ascertain, if possible, whether anything was following us. They proceeded about a quarter of a mile, when they were commanded to halt, and were challenged, "Who goes there?" (It was very dark and they could see nothing.) The officer answered, "A detachment of the 2d Iowa. They words had hardly passed his lips when they poured a volley from some 40 shot guns into his company, wounding two men, one mortally, and killing two horses. We heard the report of the volley, and "I bet you" we got into position in a hurry; but that was the end of it. It was only a company of guerrillas, who followed our trail to find out where we camped.

The next morning we started early, and reached the old Sherman Ford of the Tallahatchie by 9 a. m. Found the boat destroyed, and a company of rebel cavalry guarding the ford from the opposite bank. Skirmished with them awhile, when they fell back. Col. Hatch here called for a company to volunteer to cross. Co. C, of our regiment, promptly responded, and dashed in, swam the river, and in a few moments were peppering away. I regretted very much that I was not in hearing when they called for a volunteer company, as I am considered some on a charge ever since I charged and captured Hudsonville with 40 men, that was defended by 250 rebels. I was the third company across, not much behind. The boys enjoyed the sport of swimming their horses across. Some were mounted on small mules, and it was perfectly side-splitting to see them perform in the water. Some, when reaching deep water, would go down head first, throwing the riders over their heads. When they reached the opposite bank, the rider generally had Mr. Mule by the narrative.

I was sent forward with my company to find a plantation to camp at, as it would take until the following morning to cross the whole command.

I moved three miles to the front where I found a beautiful plantation, the residence of a Mr. James Bowler, a Mississippi state senator, where I found plenty of corn for the animals, and hams and chickens for the men; concluded it would pay to accept the hospitalities of Mr. "Senator." I say accept, as the gentleman dug out just before we got there. Budd invited himself, and of course accepted. I assure you we were no welcome guests to the ladies and they let no opportunity pass to convince us of that fact. Next day we marched without interruption to the plantation of Dr. Lard which we reached an hour before dark. Here we met a force of the enemy who had come from Panola, eight miles distant, to make us countermarch; but it was no go. The boys pitched into them; and in less than an hour they were gone. We camped here for the night, fed what corn we could, and in the morning when leaving we burned the rest.

Approaching Panola we had everything arranged for a fight, as we expected old Chalmers would surely fight here, this being his headquarters; but nary a fight. We marched quietly in and took possession of the town, his troops evacuated some five hours before. It seems that Chalmers with some 2,000 of his men had gone north, while we were coming south. He went to the Mississippi river and attempted the capture of some of our transports, while we marched to his headquarters and destroyed them. From here four companies were sent in pursuit of the retreating foe. They chased them across the Yocna river, burned the railroad bridge and returned to Panola, burning all the government property and stores. We all recrossed the Tallahatchie in hopes to get in ahead of Chalmers on his return. Leaving the river by the Senatobid road we received orders to burn the country as we passed, and very soon could be seen fences, corn cribs, cotton gins, vacant houses, wagons, buggies, plows, fields of grain just cut, and all other combustible matter, with exception of occupied houses all on fire. It was truly a fearful scene, and brilliant withal. The scene of desolation, misery and destruction combined, was such as I never wish to see again. From several houses I saw a woman snatch her babe from the cradle and, followed by two and sometimes four little ones, start for the woods with no bonnet on, her hair streaming in the wind, screaming at the top of her voice for us to spare her and the children. We told her to go back to the house and she should not be harmed. In some cases it was almost impossible to convince them that we would not kill them. Thus we marched to Senalobia, leaving everything in ruins behind us.

Here one brigade took charge of the captured property, which consisted of horses, mules, niggers by the hundreds, a large drove of cattle, two artillery cassons and about 60 prisoners, and started for home, 70 miles distant, while we struck south after Gen. Chalmers. As soon as we left town the burning commenced again. In our front, rear and on both flanks for miles could be seen the fires. Moving about eight miles we were suddenly brought to a halt by the advance guard being an ambushed, in which two men were badly wounded. From an intelligent contraband at a house near by we learned that Chalmers was on this road two hours before, coming towards us, but learning that the Yanks were in the country about faced his command and skedaddled for the Coldwater, which he was then probably crossing. We pushed on as fast as possible till we reached a cane thicket, four miles from the ferry, when we encountered them. Skirmishing commenced and for two hours we had it quite lively with them, but all the time driving them. Their only object in fighting us was to gain time for their command to cross.

Night coming on they crossed under cover of it. Our skirmish line was pushed forward to the river bank, when the rebs opened a terrific fire from the opposite bank, killing one and wounding one of our men. The men took shelter behind trees, the rebs were in the cane thicket, only a narrow river between them. When one from either side showed himself bang went a gun after him. They were so close that they finally got to blackgarding each other. During the conversation one of our boys showed himself—snap, snap, went two shotguns, but the caps being wet they did not explode. One of our boys called out to him, "Your caps are wet, Bub, dont you want some dry ones." "Yes, send us over some, please." They got two volleys from fifty rifles just then. "How do you like those caps?" said one of them. "Not at all, for God's sake send them the other end foremost, if you please."

It being dark it would have been folly to have attempted to cross until morning. We politely requested them to wait until daylight and we would give them all the fight they wanted. "All right," said they, but when day appeared they were gone. We crossed rapidly and pushed on after them, but they having several hours the start got away from us. We followed their trail until we found they had scattered in squads, then left them. Marched that night until near midnight. By looking over one's shoulder you could track us for miles by the blazing corn cribs and cotton gins.

At the plantation where we camped we found three very interesting ladies. They heard of our coming an hour before we arrived, and seeing the firey trail we left supposed, as they said, that we would burn their house and contents, consequently they hid their valuables in boxes, sacks, and baskets, and secreted them in the orchard. Thinking we would pass on after burning them out. It happened that my company camped in the orchard where the articles were hid; also, several other companies. In the morning the boys were somewhat surprised to find a jar of honey, in one place, a jar of preserves in another, a barrel of whisky in another which they made fly in a hurry; all kinds of ladies wearing apparrel, dishes, glass ware, and bed-clothes were also found; some of the things they got again and some things they did not. One of my boys brought me two pair of kid gloves, some ladies hose, collars, and pocket handkerchiefs. I took them to the ladies, who thanked me with tears in their eyes, said they had lost most everything they had and now says one their goes my pet riding poney. Some of our soldiers, I am ashamed to say, conducted themselves most shamefully on this raid, robbing and plundering houses and insulting ladies in the most shameful manner. But such things are not tolerated and are only practiced by those who were thieves at home, and will be thieves any where. One rascal robbed an orphan girl of a fine gold watch the gift of her father. Fortunately he was detected. I was talking to the lady when the thief was marched back, and made to deliver it to her. If he possessed any fine or sensitive feeling it must have been very humiliating; he certainly looked sheepish enough. I would sooner die a thousand deaths than have been in his situation.

Leaving this plantation we reached home three days after, tired, dirty and hungry, fully satisfied that Gen. Chalmers is a coward, and the troops that he commands, for we were seven or eight days in his country, giving him every opportunity, and nearly begging a fight from him, but fight he wont unless he can catch a small squad by themselves. Our regiment and the 2d Michigan whipped him a year ago the first day of July, at Boonsville, where he had 7,000 men, and he has had no use for us since. So this cruel war goes on. How many innocent people must and do suffer. Chalmers has been so recreant to the trust reposed in him of guarding this state that it is said Gen. Forrest, from Bragg's army, with his cavalry, is coming here to take care of us. I know him of old, and the old rat fights wicked.

It will be a relief and a satisfaction to the men to have some one here that will fight us, for we have ridden day and night for the past two months and havn't had a good tough fight yet. Tell cousin Billy and Whig that when their commands are surrounded that that is the time to fight. Our command was completely surrounded a short time since. We made a feint at one point, and went through at another like a kite, rallied the men and attacked and routed them completely, losing only three or four men. Our bein, mounted makes a great difference. Nothing like being astride of a good horse. Especially when the fight gets too hot its a good thing to get out of the way with.

We have no late or interesting news from Vicksburg. The people, that is the citizens, are confident that we will never take it. I think I never saw people so sanguine as they are. If they get an idea in their heads nothing can convince them to the contrary.

I have given you a pretty lengthy account of this trip, but the half is not told. I will leave the balance until I come home.

Ever Yours, GEORGE.

Last Night's Report.

Louisville, July 8.

The steamers Alice Dean and J. T. McCombs were captured by about 200 rebels at Brandenburg, Kentucky, yesterday afternoon. Gunboats are in pursuit.

New York, July 8.

A Washington letter in the Commercial says Admiral Wilkes had arrived there, having been relieved from duty with the West India squadron.

The same letter says a distinguished member of the administration remarked, Tuesday, that the services of every major general would soon be called to active duty and that General McClellan would be the first one, it having been determined to give him a place where his engineering abilities could be displayed.

The rebel pickets have fallen back beyond Fairfax.

Baltimore, July 8.

Nearly 1,000 rebels captured by General Kilpatrick arrived this morning, including Gen. Jones, a cavalry officer, and 51 other commissioned officers.

Archbishop Renrick died suddenly this morning, aged 66 years.

New York, July 8.

The Post has the following: Capt. Reyerson, of the 13th New Jersey regiment, who reached home at Newark, this morning, says, before he left this regiment Gen. Meade made an address to his army in which he stated that the rebel loss was 35,000. Gen. Meade has captured in all sixty pieces of artillery. The Post says Captain Reyerson is a man of character and reliability.

Cairo, July 8.

Special to Evening Journal.—A bearer of dispatches from Gen. Grant arrived this morning. One division of the army had marched in and taken possession of Vicksburg before he left. Grant will not rest on his laurels. Look out for more interesting news from that quarter soon.

There were four divisions of rebel troops in Vicksburg, commanded by the following named officers: Maj. Gen. C. L. Stevens, of Virginia; Maj. Gen. Forney, of Ala.; Maj. Gen. M. L. Smith, formerly of New York, but late of Florida, and Brig Gen. Bowen, of Missouri. The number of prisoners taken is between 23,000 and 25,000. They were all paroled. The reasons for this course are many and satisfactory, though it does not give a favorable impression at first.

I have seen a number of a Vicksburg paper, printed on wall paper, dated the 2d. The garrison was reduced to mule meat before surrendering. A paragraph speaks of this meat being "savory," and in a variety of ways it tries to keep its courage up.

We have possession of every man and gun in the city. It is said that nearly one-third of the rebels are sick.

As the steamer Dickey came up she was fired upon by guerrillas at the foot of Island 82, with six-pound cannon. The boat was struck 13 times. Nobody was hurt. The guerrillas have instructions to fire on all hospital steamers, as they say we have been carrying troops and ammunition under the hospital flag.

The victory at Helena is larger than reported yesterday. We have 1200 prisoners, I have not been able to get the exact losses yet. They do not vary much from the estimate of yesterday.

Headquarters Dep't of the Cumberland, Tullahoma, July 8, 1863—9. M.

We have driven the rebels out of Middle Tennessee.

Their retreat has been disastrous and demoralizing to them. It is generally believed they had lost not less than five thousand prisoners in the mountains.

Nothing but excessive rains and the impassable condition of the roads prevented us from overthrowing and destroying their entire army.

It has now rained for fifteen consecutive days. You may judge of the roads, when I tell you that it took two divisions of Crittenden's corps four days to make twenty miles.

The north end of a bridge across the Tennessee at Bridgeport was burned by Bragg, who crossed at that point.

Steamer John H. Dickey, Vicinity of Vicksburg, July 4.

Special to Chicago Times.—Vicksburg has surrendered.

The name of Gen. Grant is now inseparably connected with our national birthday. We entered the city at 10 a. m. of that day, at high noon the flag gracefully waved forgiveness for the past.

Over 20,000 prisoners were taken, with small arms innumerable, and the finest rifled batteries in the confederate service.

At about 7 a. m. of July 3d, a flag of truce was seen upon the rebel breastworks. An officer was sent to receive it. All firing ceased, and thousands of men thronged the parapets to see the foe with whom they had contended for 42 days, each concealed from the other. The men on both sides gazed in wonderment. No arms were visible, only men, and the earthworks were alive. In some salients where we thought there might be 20, there seemed 100. All looked like men who labored in mills or lime quarries. Slouched hats, shirts and pants were the uniform. But little was said, though in some places the men were not more than 16 or 15 feet apart.

The bearers of dispatches to our generals were fine looking men, of martial bearing and brave men, clad in grey, close fitting uniform and French caps, mounted on fine but thin horses. They were conducted blindfolded to the tent of Gen. A. Smith, whose front they had entered. He escorted them to the tent of Gen. Stephen Burbridge, to remain until his return from the quarters of Gen. Grant, five miles away. They conversed of old times more than the present. Their names were Gen. Bowen, of Port Gibson memory, and Col. Montgomery, of Virginia.

After taking a glass of wine, Gen. Bowen remarked that his bandage was uncomfortable, as it was very warm. Gen. Burbridge had it unloosed.

After more than an hour's conversation their answer came, and they were again blindfolded and returned to their own works.

Still the men sat in silence. Not a gun was fired in that part of the works. All wondered what it meant.

The purport of the rebel message was this:

"Gen. Grant—To prevent the further effusion of blood and loss of life, I propose that hostilities cease for — hours, and that you appoint three commissioners and I three, to confer upon conditions of surrender, though I can hold out indefinitely."

To which Gen. Grant replied:

"As to the first proposition, it is for you to avoid at any time. As to the second, I see no necessity for that, as there can be no conditions of surrender. We can all bear testimony to your endurance and bravery, and will treat you with all the respect due prisoners of war."

Gen. Pemberton then solicited a personal interview, which was granted by Gen. Grant.

At 3 p. m. the latter, with his staff, appeared on the hills where our advance works were. Here the party halted until Gen. Pemberton appeared, accompanied by Gen. Bowen and Col. Montgomery. On the crest of the opposite hills were rifle-pits and forts crowded with men. In the space between, in a grove of fruit trees, figs and peaches, met the contending heroes.—Thousands of soldiers looked upon the strange scene.

Two men who had been lieutenants in the same regiment in Mexico now met as foes, with all the world looking upon them, the one his country's glory, and the other his country's shame.

When they had approached within a few feet, there was a halt and a silence. Col. Montgomery spoke: "Gen. Grant, Gen. Pemberton." They shook hands politely.

It was evident that Pemberton was mortified. He said: "I was at Monterey and Buena Vista. We had terms and conditions there." Gen. Grant here took him aside, and they sat down on the grass, and talked more than an hour. Grant smoked all the time. Pemberton played with the grass and pulled leaves.

It was finally agreed to parole them there, allowing the officers each his horse. It was a polite thing. The dread of going north and the fear of harsh treatment had deterred them from capitulating sooner.—Grant proved his magnaninity and saved thousands upon thousands of dollars in the way of transportation and rations.

They feared the 4th of July. Our men would call out at night that the 4th would finish them. It was so arranged. By this we have saved thousands of lives.

Both armies are gratified with the result. Our men treat the rebels with kindness, giving them coffee, which some have not tasted for a year.

The city is much dilipidated. Many houses are injured.

The Vicksburg paper of July 2d, of which I send you extracts by mail, admits the eating of mule meat and the pilfering of soldiers in private houses.

Mrs. Ciaco, wife of an officer in the artillery service, was killed last Monday in the city.

Gen. Green, formerly of Missouri, was killed last week. Cols. Griffin and Askew, of the 31st Louisiana regiment were also killed.

There seems to be much suffering there from sickness and our missiles.

Johnston is still in our rear.

Indianapolis, July 8.

Special to the Tribune.—Governor Morton has just received information that John Morgan with his entire force is at Brandensburg, on the Ohio river, and that he has seized two boats and crossed about 400 of his men into Indiana, who are said to be marching on Coryden, Harrison county.

A skirmish had taken place between them and a small force of home guards, in which the latter were defeated with a loss of several killed. The militia has been called out and preparations made to "welcome them with bloody hands to hospitable graves." The citizens of this city are meeting in the various wards organizing companies of home guards.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

Frederick, Md., July 8—9 p. m.

Gen. French has been placed in command of the 3d army corps, which has been largely reinforced and placed in motion. It is stated on reliable authority that Lee has no alternative but to deliver battle or surrender. About 600 prisoners arrived to-day. This arrival, according to the statements of high officers, swells the number already reported to 11,800. These latter were captured and forwarded by Gen. Kilpatrick. Considerable cannonading has been heard to-day in the direction of Hagerstown, but no reports have yet come in. It is believed to have been caused by our cavalry attack on the enemy's outpost.

Baltimore, July 8.

The American's special, dated Wednesday noon, 8th, says: The position of the rebels and their condition is definitely ascertained. Their infantry line was drawn across from Funksburg, Maryland, to Falling Waters, and behind this line they are making almost superhuman exertions to get their trains of artillery and ammunition across the river. The best military authority doubts it, and are almost confident they have no pontoon bridges at Falling Waters. They are now crossing their horses on boats and leaving their wagons on this side, probably intending to take them to pieces and carry them across on canal boats. I have heard the opinion expressed by high military authority, that the enemy would probably secure the most defensible line in front of Williamsport, entrench themselves, and endeavor to hold our army at bay while they secured means of crossing.

Lee's headquarters are definitely ascertained to be at Hagerstown to-day, and his troops are mainly on the road between there and Williamport which is only seven miles distant. Gen. Earley's rebel command is to-day reported to be cut off in the mountains near Greencastle by our cavalry. This is only a rumor, but it is credited to some extent. The cavalry of Gen. Pleasanton has been operating with magnificent success during the last three days. While the rebels were retreating we had cavalry in their front and rear and on both flanks. Its presence and bold dashes aided in increasing the demoralization of the rebels and their discipline has been greatly relaxed. Among captures are Brig. Gens. Robinson and Trimble.

The damage done the rebel trains by the dashes of our cavalry is almost incredible. Everywhere they were captured, cut off and burned. Gen. Kilpatrick dashed into the middle of Gen. Ewell's train and burned between 200 and 300 wagons and run off horses. To-day he captured 63 more wagons and 300 horses and mules. Our cavalry think Kilpatrick's division had a fight yesterday at Hagerstown with a rebel division. Their positions at one time was dangerous, but they got out finally without severe lors.

Our army is moving steadily. If Lee remains this side of the river there is a probability of another battle within the next 48 hours.

Ft. Monroe, July 7.

Further lists of prisoners who have died in rebel prisons are received and forwarded to Washington for publication. The steamer City of Albany from White House arrived on the morning of the first. General Getty with 10,000 men proceeded from White House to destroy the remaining bridges over the South Anna river. He returned this morning to White House, having accomplished most of his mission satisfactorily.

Harrisburg, July 8—10 p. m.

Special to World.—Reports are rife here to-night, of an advance of a part of the rebel forces again down the Cumberland valley to strike Gen. Couch's army.

Frederick, Md., July 8.

Times' special.—The total number of prisoners captured reported at the provost marshal general's office, to last night, including wounded, is in the vicinity of 11,000. There is no truth in the stories of great amounts of artillery captured by us. About two-thirds of the burial parties sent out to bury rebel dead have made returns. The number reported by them thus far is 2,680. The total cannot fall under 3,500, not including those of Wednesday, which the enemy himself buried. Our losses, as to-day reported semi-officially, foot up 17,000 killed, wounded and miesing. The 3d corps' loses 4,400; 5th, 2,349; 12th, 750; 2d, 4,800. The balance I have not yet obtained.

Leavenworth, July 8.

Special to Herald, Sunday, 5th.—Gen. Blunt, with all the cavalry he could raise, has started from Fort Scott to Fort Gibson, in the Indian Territory. Information received at the headquarters of the district of the frontier shows that Col. Phillips, of the Indian brigade, is hard pressed by the enemy, who is reported 7,000 strong. Three infantry regiments are marching to reinforce Col. Phillips. Gen. Blunt took no train, and will cross the Arkansas and offer battle.

Headquarters Army of the Potomac, July 8, 1863.

Herald's special.—Lee is still on this side of the Potomac, unable to cross with his army. It is anticipated that a battle will probably occur near the old Antietam field. Our forces are rapidly concentrating and a desperate battle is impending. The river is swollen to a great height and is still rising. South Mountain has been occupied, and Harper's Ferry is in our possession.

Cincinnati, July 9.

Special to Commercial, Tullahoma, 8th.—Bragg yesterday retreated across the Tennessee and destroyed the splendid bridge at Bridgeport. Stragglers captured say the army is demoralized and crumbling as it recedes.

San Francisco, July 8.

Afternoon Dispatches.

Philadelphia, July 9.

The Enquirer has a special from Fredericks, 8th, reporting a sharp action nearly all day between Meade's advances and the rebels beyond Boonsboro. Every available man is being pushed forward. The rebels attacked our cavalry this morning west of Boonsboro. We fell back towards Crampton's Gap. This indicates that the river being unfordable Lee intends trying Antietam again.

Harrisburg, July 9.

There is no information here of the rebel advance down the Cumberland Valley against Couch.

New York, July 9.

Flour dull and a shade lower, 5,05a5,60 extra state. Wheat unsettled and more doing, 1,12a1,25 spring, 1,18a1,31 Milwaukee club, 1,36a1,40 winter red. Corn steadier, 66½c. Whisky quiet 45½a46.

Frederick, Md., July 8.

Herald's special.—It is reliably reported that our troops occupied Hagerstown today, after a fight. No particulars. The enemy were transporting men across the river on two flat boats. Our artillery had commenced shelling them. The rebel army is supposed to be moving between Williamsport and Sharpsburg. It is generally thought there will be a decisive battle tomorrow or next day.

Washington, July 8.

Information received to-night, indicates another battle imminent at Hagerstown. All precautions have been taken to secure the capture of Lee's army, which is thought only a question of time. The rumor that Beauregard was at Culpepper with 40,000 men is believed to be a canard.

Washington, July 8.

Times' special.—Generals Grant and Meade are promoted. The former to be major general and the latter brigadier general in the regular army.

Washington, July 8.

Special to the Tribune.—Heavy skirmishing, to-day, from daylight till 3 p. m., near Boonsboro, between Buford's and Kilpatrick's cavalry and the enemy's cavalry and infantry. The locality of Lee is unknown, but his wagon trains are at Williamsport. It is believed Lee is fortifying on or near the Antietam.

It is now stated that the first draft will be for 300,000. It will be made as soon as the enrollment can be completed. The quotas of the several districts are already assigned.

New York, July 9.

The Times correspondent, with Kilpatrick's cavalry, writing from South Mountain, reports the capture, on the 4th, of all of Ewell's wagon train four miles long, strongly guarded by infantry and cavalry, with 1,500 prisoners, and 3000 horses and mules.

For the Gazette.

CONCERT.—The Musical Convention, now in session in this city under the instruction of Prof. A. N. Johnson, assisted by G. Cole, will give a grand concert at Lappin's Hall, Friday evening, July 10th, commencing precisely at 8 o'clock. It will be given after the style in which oratorios are performed, avoiding that which is generally very disagreeable to audiences, the waiting and passing between the different pieces.

Music, almost entirely new, consisting of nearly every variety and style, is being learned and practiced, which, with the manner in which it will be sung and performed, will render the concert one of the most interesting and entertaining ever held in this city.

Prof. Johnson has made music the study of his life; has enjoyed the best advantages to be had in this country and in Europe; and as an author, teacher, and conductor, is without a superior in the United States, and the convention, under his instruction, is making rapid improvement. One feature entirely novel in this concert is that it will be performed by two choirs, one composed of of juvenile singers, and the other by adults. This will give at the same time the sparkle and beauty of flowers, and the sweetness and richness of maturer fruit.

TWO CENT STAMPS.—The new two cent stamps just issued by the post office department for city letters, circulars, &c., are black in color, and have a finely engraved head of Gen. Andrew Jackson. The portrait occupies nearly the entire surface of the stamp.

☞ Gov. Salomon and the Hon. I. C. Sloan are to address the Union League at Madison this evening.

The fortifications at Pittsburg have been completed.

ACCIDENT TO MRS. LINCOLN.—The Washington telegraphs of the 3d say:

"This morning as Mrs. Lincoln was leaving Mount Pleasant Hospital in her carriage, the horses became frightened and ran away. Mrs. L. sprung from the carriage and was thrown violently to the ground, and severely bruised in several places. The blood flowed so freely that the army surgeons thought she had been seriously injured, but it was ascertained that no bones were broken. Her face was badly cut. She was removed to the Soldiers' Home, whither the President proceeded immediately on hearing of the accident."

PLEASANT.—A copperhead provision broker bought $20,000 worth of gold at forty five per cent. premium, a week or two ago, when everybody thought Lee was about to march upon Philadelphia. Yesterday, under the inspiration of the war news from Vicksburg, the bottom dropped out of the gold market, and our copperhead friend found himself out three thousand dollars. It is said there was a blue streak of profanity in South Water street, yesterday.—Chicago Tribune.

AN ORDINANCE,

To repeal an Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to regulate the building of Railway Bridges over Western avenue and Clarion street, fourth ward, city of Janesville," passed April 30, 1863.

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville, do ordain:

SECTION 1. That an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to regulate the building of Railway Bridges over Western avenue and Clarion street, fourth ward, city of Janesville," passed April 30, 1863, be, and that the same is hereby repealed.—Passed July 2d. A D 1863.

R. B. TREAT, Mayor.

Attest, O. H. WILLISTON, City Clerk. jy6d3d

AN ORDINANCE,

To regulate the building of Railway Bridges over Western avenue and Clarion street, fourth ward, city of Janesville.

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville do ordain:

SECTION 1. That the Chicago and Northwestern Railway Company be and hereby is authorized and empowered to erect and maintain bridges over Western avenue and Clarion street in the fourth ward of the city of Janesville, upon which to rest the superstructure and tracks of the railway of said company, and for that purpose may use and occupy such portions of said avenue and street as may be necessary, upon which to rest the abutments to the arches of said bridges respectively, and the embankments of earth adjacent thereto.

SEC 2. The opening or common highway under said bridges shall each be not less than thirty feet wide, and shall be built in accordance with the established grade of said avenue and street; and said company shall immediately after the completion of said bridges repair the common highway under said bridges and along the embankments adjacent thereto, so as to accommodate the public travel on said avenue and street, and said bridges to be not less than eighteen feet high in the clear.

SEC. 3. Said bridges shall each be built of stone, or stone and iron combined, and with a single span or arch reaching over said space of thirty feet as described in section two of this ordinance.—Passed July 2d, 1863. R. B. TREAT, Mayor.

Attest, O. H. WILLISTON, City Clerk. jy6dtf

DR. SWEET'S
Infallible Liniment,
THE
GREAT EXTERNAL REMEDY,

FOR RHEUMATISM, GOUT, NEURALGIA, LUMBAGO, STIFF NECK AND JOINTS, SPRAINS, BRUISES, CUTS AND WOUNDS, PILES, HEADACHE, AND ALL RHEUMATIC AND NERVOUS DISORDERS.

For all which it is a speedy and certain remedy, and never fails. This Liniment is prepared from the recipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the famous bone setter, and has been used in his practice for more than twenty years with the most astonishing success.

AS AN ALLEVIATOR OF PAIN, it is unrivaled by any preparation before the public, of which the most skeptical may be convinced by a single trial.

This Liniment will cure rapidly and radically, Rheumatic Disorders of every kind, and in thousands of cases where it has been used it has never been known to fail.

FOR NEURALGIA, it will afford immediate relief in every case, however distressing.

It will relieve the worst cases of HEADACHE in three minutes and is warranted to do it.

TOOTHACHE also will it cure instantly.

FOR NERVOUS DEBILITY AND GENERAL LASSITUDE arising from imprudence or excess, this Liniment is a most happy and unfailing remedy. Acting directly upon the nervous tissues, it strengthens and revivifies the system, and restores it to elasticity and vigor.

FOR PILES.—As an external remedy, we claim that it is the best known, and we challenge the world to produce an equal. Every victim of this distressing complaint should give it a trial, for it will not fail to afford immediate relief, and in a majority of cases will effect a radical cure

QUINSEY AND SORE THROAT are sometimes extremely malignant and dangerous, but a timely application of this Liniment will never fail to cure.

SPRAINS are sometimes very obstinate, and enlargement of the joints is liable to occur if neglected. The worst case may be conquered by this Liniment in two or three days.

BRUISES, CUTS, WOUNDS, SORES, ULCERS, BURNS AND SCALDS, yield readily to the wonderful healing properties of DR SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT, when used according to directions. Also, CHILBLAINS, FROSTED FEET, AND INSECT BITES AND STINGS.

Every Horse Owner

should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

Over four hundred voluntary testimonials to the wonderful curative properties of this Liniment have been received within the last two years, and many of them from persons in the highest ranks of life.

CAUTION.

To avoid imposition, observe the Signature and Likeness of Dr Stephen Sweet on every label, and also "Stephen Sweet's Infallible Liniment" blown in the glass of each bottle, without which none are genuine

CONCERT.—The Musical Convention, now in session in this city under the instruction of Prof. A. N. Johnson, assisted by G. Cole, will give a grand concert at Lappin's Hall, Friday evening, July 10th, commencing precisely at 8 o'clock. It will be given after the style in which oratorios are performed, avoiding that which is generally very disagreeable to audiences, the waiting and passing between the different pieces.

Music, almost entirely new, consisting of nearly every variety and style, is being learned and practiced, which, with the manner in which it will be sung and performed, will render the concert one of the most interesting and entertaining ever held in this city.

Prof. Johnson has made music the study of his life; has enjoyed the best advantages to be had in this country and in Europe; and as an author, teacher, and conductor, is without a superior in the United States, and the convention, under his instruction, is making rapid improvement. One feature entirely novel in this concert is that it will be performed by two choirs, one composed of of juvenile singers, and the other by adults. This will give at the same time the sparkle and beauty of flowers, and the sweetness and richness of maturer fruit.

TWO CENT STAMPS.—The new two cent stamps just issued by the post office department for city letters, circulars, &c., are black in color, and have a finely engraved head of Gen. Andrew Jackson. The portrait occupies nearly the entire surface of the stamp.

☞ Gov. Salomon and the Hon. I. C. Sloan are to address the Union League at Madison this evening.

The fortifications at Pittsburg have been completed.

ACCIDENT TO MRS. LINCOLN.—The Washington telegraphs of the 3d say:

"This morning as Mrs. Lincoln was leaving Mount Pleasant Hospital in her carriage, the horses became frightened and ran away. Mrs. L. sprang from the carriage and was thrown violently to the ground, and severely bruised in several places. The blood flowed so freely that the army surgeons thought she had been seriously injured, but it was ascertained that no bones were broken. Her face was badly cut. She was removed to the Soldiers' Home, whither the President proceeded immediately on hearing of the accident."

PLEASANT.—A copperhead provision broker bought $20,000 worth of gold at forty five per cent. premium, a week or two ago, when everybody thought Lee was about to march upon Philadelphia. Yesterday, under the inspiration of the war news from Vicksburg, the bottom dropped out of the gold market, and our copperhead friend found himself out three thousand dollars. It is said there was a blue streak of profanity in South Water street, yesterday.—Chicago Tribune.

AN ORDINANCE,

To repeal an Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to regulate the building of Railway Bridges over Western avenue and Clarion street, fourth ward, city of Janesville," passed April 30, 1863.

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville, do ordain:

SECTION 1. That an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to regulate the building of Railway Bridges over Western avenue and Clarion street, fourth ward, city of Janesville," passed April 30, 1863, be, and that the same is hereby repealed.—Passed July 2d, A D 1863.

R. B. TREAT, Mayor.

Attest, G. H. WILLISTON, City Clerk. jy6d3d

AN ORDINANCE,

To regulate the building of Railway Bridges over Western avenue and Clarion street; fourth ward, city of Janesville.

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville do ordain:

SECTION 1. That the Chicago and Northwestern Railway Company be and hereby is authorized and empowered to erect and maintain bridges over Western avenue and Clarion street in the fourth ward of the city of Janesville, upon which to rest the superstructure and tracks of the railway of said company, and for that purpose may use and occupy such portions of said avenue and street as may be necessary, upon which to rest the abutments to the arches of said bridges respectively, and the embankments of earth adjacent thereto.

SEC. 2. The opening or common highway under said bridges shall each be not less than thirty feet wide, and shall be built in accordance with the established grade of said avenue and street; and said company shall immediately after the completion of said bridges repair the common highway under said bridges and along the embankments adjacent thereto, so as to accommodate the public travel on said avenue and street, and said bridges to be not less than eighteen feet high in the clear.

SEC. 3. Said bridges shall each be built of stone, or stone and iron combined, and with a single span or arch reaching over said space of thirty feet as described in section two of this ordinance.—Passed July 2d, 1863.

A Friend in Need. Try It.

DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT is prepared from the receipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the great bone setter, and has been used in his practice for the last twenty years with the most astonishing success. As an external remedy it is without a rival, and will alleviate pain more speedily than any other preparation. For all Rheumatic and Nervous Disorders it is truly infallible, and as a curative for Sores, Wounds, Sprains, Bruises, &c. its soothing, healing and powerful strengthening properties, excite the just wonder and astonishment of all who have ever given it a trial. Over four hundred certificates of remarkable cures, performed by it within the last two years, attest this fact.

P. P. Stewart's Cooking Stoves.

UPWARDS of the above number of this wonderful stove are now in use throughout the country. Eighteen years of increasing favor lead the proprietor, P. P. Stewart, to hope at no distant day to have the true "Benefactor of the Household" in universal use. The improvements of 1859 make it the

Most Perfect Cook Stove

in the world. The only cook stove having a full double sett of flues, inlaid with heat retaining substance which enables the user to bake a full batch

After the Fire is Entirely Extinguished

in the fire chamber. The only perfect Air-Tight cook stove manufactured. The only cook stove in use that will save its cost in three years in fuel. No waste of heat; no waste of fuel; perfectly air-tight; will retain fire in the chamber for twelve hours without adding fuel.

Every Stove Warranted to Give Satisfaction.

Those who know the P. P. Stewart cook stove need no recommendation. For the benefit of those who do not, at an early date I hope to have the pleasure of exhibiting, at my store, its wonderful capacity in a series of experiments in baking, roasting, broiling, &c., &c., of which due notice will be given.

☞ Bodman's Piano Forte Tuning Scale ☜

for tuning Pianos or Melodeons in even temperment. Any person who can tune two strings in unison or octaves can, with this scale, tune a Piano. Its object is to enable those who play the Piano to tune their own instruments.

We would call the attention of all lovers of music to a new instrument which we have just received called the which bids fair to take the place of the ordinary Melodeon. It has two set of reeds and the power of three common Melodeons. It is inclosed in a strong, neat case of Rosewood or Blackwalnut, and is just the thing for Churches, Lecture Rooms, &c. It is praised by every one that has examined it. 1863. Grand Haven Route. 1863.

THE Steamships of this line commenced twice daily trips between Milwaukee and Grand Haven, in connection with the Detroit and Milwaukee railroad, Monday, May 4th, 1863, leaving the company's dock, Milwaukee, at 4:00 a m. and 4:15 p m.

These steamships make the trip to Grand Haven, (a distance of 85 miles,) in six hours, with as much regularity as any railway train.

This is 13 hours the quickest, and 95 miles the shortest route, to all points in the Eastern States or Canadas. Five hours the quickest, and 67 miles the shortest route to Cleveland, with no expense for sleeping car.

Fare from all points west, as low, and from Milwaukee, One Dollar Less than by other lines.

In advantage of luxurious sleeping cars, changes in Union depots, sure connections, and baggage checked through, this line is unsurpassed.

DR. SWEET'S
Infallible Liniment,
THE
GREAT EXTERNAL REMEDY,

FOR RHEUMATISM, GOUT, NEURALGIA, LUMBAGO, STIFF NECK AND JOINTS, SPRAINS, BRUISES, CUTS AND WOUNDS, PILES, HEADACHE, AND ALL RHEUMATIC AND NERVOUS DISORDERS.

For all which it is a speedy and certain remedy, and never fails. The Liniment is prepared from the recipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the famous bone setter, and has been used in his practice for more than twenty years with the most astonishing success.

AS AN ALLEVIATOR OF PAIN, it is unrivaled by any preparation before the public, of which the most skeptical may be convinced by a single trial.

This Liniment will cure rapidly and radically, RHEUMATIC DISORDERS of every kind, and in thousands of cases where it has been used it has never been known to fail.

FOR NEURALGIA, it will afford immediate relief in every case, however distressing.

It will relieve the worst cases of HEADACHE in three minutes and is warranted to do it.

TOOTHACHE also will it cure instantly.

FOR NERVOUS DEBILITY AND GENERAL LASSITUDE arising from imprudence or excess, this Liniment is a most happy and unfailing remedy. Acting directly upon the nervous tissues, it strengthens and revivifies the system, and restores it to elasticity and vigor.

FOR PILES.—As an external remedy, we claim that it is the best known, and we challenge the world to produce an equal. Every victim of this distressing complaint should give it a trial, for it will not fail to afford immediate relief, and in a majority of cases will effect a radical cure.

QUINSEY AND SORE THROAT are sometimes extremely malignant and dangerous, but a timely application of this Liniment will never fail to cure.

SPRAINS are sometimes very obstinate, and enlargement of the joints is liable to occur if neglected. The worst case may be conquered by this Liniment in two or three days.

BRUISES, CUTS, WOUNDS, SORES, ULCERS, BURNS AND SCALDS, yield readily to the wonderful healing properties of DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT, when used according to directions. Also, CHILBLAINS, FROSTED FEET, AND INSECT BITES AND STINGS.

Every Horse Owner

should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

Over four hundred voluntary testimonials to the wonderful curative properties of this Liniment have been received within the last two years, and many of them from persons in the highest ranks of life.

CAUTION.

To avoid imposition, observe the Signature and Likeness of Dr. Stephen Sweet on every label, and also "Stephen Sweet's Infallible Liniment," blown in the glass of each bottle, without which none are genuine.

GREAT REDUCTION

—IN—

The Prices

—OF—

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $70.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand, so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'s GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

SOUTH FIRST STREET.

Specifications for Grading, Paving Gutters and building Crosswalks on South First Street, between Main street and Jackman Street in the third Ward.

GRADING—The road bed will be 30 feet in width between the paving of the gutters, and the center line of the road bed will be 18 inches above the bottom of the gutters The road bed when completed will be crowning and uniform in surface, rising regularly from the bottom of the gutters to said center line. The grading will be estimated by the cubic yard in excavation, nothing being allowed for earth in embankment, surfacing, &c.

The material for embankment will be taken, first, from the sides of the road and in such manner as to form the gutters and a grade for sidewalks.

And, secondly, from the excavation to be made on the line of the road.

When the haul does not exceed 300 feet it will be estimated simply as earth in excavation, and bids must be made for the cubic yard, for every 100 feet over 300 feet.

The material for the road bed is to be earth and clay and no sand or gravel to be used.

GUTTERS.—The gutters, one on each side of said street are to be six feet in width at the top and eight inches in depth at the lowest point.

The gutters will be paved with good sound stone eight inches in width and placed upon their edges, and laid upon sand and gravel, and in such manner as to form a curved channel for the water. The shape of the gutters and the manner of laying the outside courses of stone, will be such as the aldermen of said ward may direct The paving will be estimated by the lineal foot, which will include preparing bed for the stone, laying stone, hauling and furnishing same, &c.

SIDEWALKS.—The bed for the sidewalks, on each side of said street, will be 12 feet wide, composed of sand or gravel or other good material, and will correspond, in grade, as near as may be with the center line of said street; the said walks are to be made smooth and even and ready for planking.

CROSSWALKS.—At the southern intersection Bluff, Division and Wisconsin streets with said South First street, there are to be stone crosswalks three feet in width and composed of stone, not less than one foot in thickness and three feet in length, all well laid.

All said work to be done under the direction of the aldermen of said third Ward.—Dated April 10th, 1863.

GREAT REDUCTION
—IN—
The Prices
—OF—
SINGER & CO.'S
STANDARD MACHINES
Well known to be the best for
Manufacturing Purposes:
No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,
Reduced to $70.
No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,
Reduced to $70.
Singer's Letter A Machine,
IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,
FIFTY DOLLARS.
The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.
Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy
in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with these than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.
We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be, as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.
We have always on hand
Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.
We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.
Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the
GENUINE ARTICLE.
In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.
Correspondents will please write their names distinctly.—It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.
All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of
I. M. SINGER & CO.'s GAZETTE, which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis
We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.
The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.
The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

50,000 lbs. of Wool Wanted!
at the
New Woolen Factory
of
F. A. WHEELER & SONS.
THIS splendid establishment, situated on Main St. a few doors north of the Excelsior Hotel, is now in successful operation. The Machinery is New and of the best quality. We are therefore prepared to manufacture a Yard of Cassimere or a pound of Stocking Yarn for Two and a half Pounds of Wool, or 3½ lbs. of wool and three shillings for manufacturing. Also, all kinds of FLANNELS AT THE SAME RATES, according to the amount of wool required to make them.
Wool Carding and Cloth Dressing
Done on Short Notice.
Those having Fine Wool to be carded into rolls should have it Cleansed at the Factory, as our conveniences are better calculated to do it well. Our price for cleansing is one cent per pound. It is very essential to have wool in good condition, otherwise it injures the card and produces poor rolls. Our carding machine is the best that could be obtained, and cannot fail to make good work. We would invite all who wish to see good machinery or want good cloth, to give us a call. Also would say to merchants who wish to obtain our cloth that it would be for their interest to buy wool and get it manufactured, and by so doing, get a good article that they can recommend to their customers.
A good supply of Cloth Constantly on Hand, which will be sold cheap for cash or wool, or exchanged for wool on shares.
Those living at a distance can send their wool by railroad or express, with directions, and it will be promptly attended to. Those coming from a distance with wool to be manufactured, will be kept over night,
FREE OF CHARGE.
We are prepared to make
Plain and Fancy Cassimeres, CHECKED FLANNELS, &C.
Also,
INDIGO DYED CASSIMERES,
Stocking Yarn and Rolls.
And finally, most kinds of cloth and yarn that may be wanted.
We have also made arrangements with a first-rate
FANCY DYER,
who will attend to the dyeing of all kinds of silk and cotton goods. Please give us a call.

SOUTH FIRST STREET.
Specifications for Grading, Paving Gutters and building Crosswalks on South First Street, between Main street and Jackman Street in the Third Ward.
GRADING.—The road bed will be 30 feet in width between the paving of the gutters, and the center line of the road bed will be 18 inches above the bottom of the gutters. The road bed when completed will be crowning and uniform in surface, rising regularly from the bottom of the gutters to said center line. The grading will be estimated by the cubic yard in excavation, nothing being allowed for earth in embankment, surfacing, &c.
The material for embankment will be taken, first, from the sides of the road and in such manner as to form the gutters and a grade for sidewalks.
And, secondly, from the excavation to be made on the line of the road.
When the haul does not exceed 300 feet it will be estimated simply as earth in excavation, and bids must be made for the cubic yard, for every 100 feet over 300 feet.
The material for the road bed is to be earth and clay and no sand or gravel to be used.
GUTTERS.—The gutters, one on each side of said street are to be six feet in width at the top and eight inches in depth at the lowest point.
The gutters will be paved with good sound stone eight inches in width and placed upon their edges, and laid upon sand and gravel, and in such manner as to form a curved channel for the water. The shape of the gutters and the manner of laying the outside courses of stone, will be such as the aldermen of said ward may direct. The paving will be estimated by the lineal foot, which will include, preparing bed for the stone, laying stone, hauling and furnishing same, &c.
SIDEWALKS.—The bed for the sidewalks, on each side of said street, will be 12 feet wide, composed of sand or gravel or other good material, and will correspond, in grade, as near as may be with the center line of said street, the said walks are to be made smooth and even and ready for planking.
CROSSWALKS.—At the southern intersection of Bluff, Division and Wisconsin streets with said South First street, there are to be stone crosswalks three feet in width and composed of stone, not less than one foot in thickness and three feet in length, all well laid.
All said work to be done under the direction of the aldermen of said third Ward.—Dated April 10th, 1863.
